BOATS AND THE LAKES

BOATS AND THE LAKES

LADIES OF THE LAKES

James Clary

This book is a delightful and informative narrative of maritime history and you, the reader, are invited to join us on a pleasant excursion cruise, to participate in a great sea battle, to experience the terror of a ship disaster, and to come along for a ride aboard a giant freighter. Ladies Of The Lakes is a salute to those schooners, steamers, gunboats and freighters, those grand and glorious ships which make up our Great Lakes tradition and heritage.

The Great Lakes in the 21st Century

Dave Dempsey

"The Great Lakes area a global treasure that we take for granted at our own peril. In this book, Dave Dempsey contrasts the majesty of the Great Lakes and the affection shown them by individuals with the history of their neglect and mistreatment by governments and others. In doing so, he provides riveting human and natural history, testimony to the wonder of the Great Lakes, and a compelling call for a new approach to their protection in the coming century. -

DISASTER GREAT LAKES

Megan Long

Disaster Great Lakes chronicles fifty of the most terrible events to strike people on these vast inland seas and in surrounding communities. Erratic weather on the Great Lakes has brought down ships of the War of 1812 schooners to the legendary Edmund Fitzgerald. On shore, great fires devastated young cities like Chicago and Toronto and cut huge swaths through forests. Train wrecks, explosions and environmental disasters like the Love Canal have been painful catalysts of change. In all the stories, the many ways people respond in times of crisis reveal the human core in all its complexity.

CARL D. BRADLEY

40TH ANNIVERSARY REMEMBRANCE

Out of the Blue Productions Inc.

On November 18, 1958, a gale on Lake Michigan claimed the 639 foot freighter Carl D. Bradley and 33 of the 35 man crew. On November 28, 1998, in Port Huron, Michigan, the Out of the Blue Productions team of Jim & Pat Snyder and Tim Juhl staged the 40th anniversary remembrance of the sinking of the Carl D Bradley. In response to numerous requests, the team has produced this video, which contains photographs and material never before shown anywhere. (The first 35 min. are very educational.)

MYSTERIOUS ISLANDS

FORGOTTEN TALES OF THE GREAT LAKES

Lynx Images

Why is there a ship graveyard off Garden Island, Lake Ontario? Who proclaimed himself king of Beaver Island, Lake Michigan? Near which Lake Erie island did the British lose an entire fleet in 1813? The waves of time threaten to wash remnants from the past away, but clues still remain upon island shores, burial grounds, grand hotels, abandoned quarries, lighthouses, forts and even a castle. Through stunning cinematography and rare archival images, journey through the centuries with this award winning filmmaker.

THE MYSTERY OF THE EDMUND FITZGERALD

Southport Video

In his musical tribute to the Fitzgerald, Gordon Lightfoot immortalized the 729-foot freighter's final voyage into the teeth of a vicious Lake Superior storm in November 1975. Even today, questions remain concerning what happened on the lake that November night. Compelling underwater footage of the wreck as it is today. Provide the story of the Fitzgerald's colorful past and tragic demise. Running time approx. 60 Minutes VHS/Color

GHOST SHIPS OF ISLE ROYALE

Southport Video

Lake Superior, the largest of the Great Lakes, has claimed over five hundred vessels in its maritime history. Some of the most intriguing of these shipwrecks are the ones that occurred around the Isle Royale. As witness to history, you will hear the stories of: " the Chester A. Congdon, a 532-foot steamer which at the time of its sinking, was the largest and most expensive loss in Great Lakes maritime history; " the Kamloops, a three-year-old package freighter that mysteriously disappeared in a Lake Superior storm in 1927 and remained undiscovered for half a century; " the Emperor, a huge bulk carrier that split in half and sank in 1947.

EDMUND FITZGERALD:

Past & Present

Southport Video

When the Edmund Fitzgerald, a gigantic and thoroughly modern ore carrier, sank in Lake Superior during a fierce storm in November 1975, one of the biggest mysteries in Great Lakes maritime history was born. How had the 729-foot vessel, known for its rugged durability, and piloted by one of the most respected and experienced captains on the lakes, gone down without so much as a call for help? What, exactly happened on Lake Superior that fateful night? Edmund Fitzgerald: Past and Present. Running time approx. 60 Minutes VHS/Color

THE DEMISE OF THE DANIEL J. MORRELL

Southport Video

On November 29, 1966, while traveling on Lake Huron on its last voyage of the shipping season, the Daniel J. Morrell, caught in a terrible storm, broke in two and sank beneath the lake's icy waters, claiming 28 of its 29 officers and crew members. Amazingly, one crew member was sighted and rescued by a Coast Guard helicopter. His survival remains one of the most compelling stories to come out of recent Great Lakes maritime history.
