THE REAL STORY OF JAMESTOWN

In the spring of 1607, the Susan Constant, Godspeed, and Discovery landed a group of settlers in Virginia to build what became America's first permanent English colony—a place dogged by misfortune and tragedy. In this program, noted archaeologist William Kelso and a team of experts turn the long-accepted story of Jamestown upside down as they uncover clues to what really happened on James Island nearly 400 years ago. Dramatizations of key events are interwoven with details of the excavation that is bringing to light a tale of political infighting and assassination that had lain buried for centuries. ## REDISCOVERING GEORGE WASHINGTON

Filmed exclusively at locations salient to Washington's story, this program takes a fresh look at an American icon and reintroduces him as a very real, very remarkable human being. Richard Brookhiser, host and author of Founding Father: Rediscovering George Washington, puts Washington's manifold accomplishments in focus with timely comparisons to parallels in current events and throughout history. Examining Washington under the rubrics of warrior, politician, and man of charisma, the program goes on to show what character traits separate Washington from other leaders who were also successful in these arenas, such as Caesar and Napoleon. Guests include former President George Bush and living descendants of Washington's slaves. (87 minutes, color)

ORGANIZING AMERICA: The History of Trade Unions

Organizing America incorporates interviews, personal accounts, and archival footage to tell a compelling story about the struggles and triumphs of American workers. Broadly tracing American labor history from the formation of the first "friendly societies" in the 18th century to the challenges posed by new technologies in the 1980s and 90s, it explores the unique combination of individualism and cooperation that characterizes the American workplace. Historical context provides viewers with a fresh perspective on important issues. Interviews with veterans of labor struggles yield fascinating personal insights into the saga of organized labor and its sometimes violent origins. The commentary of labor historians as well as union, business, and government officials helps to identify and explain significant events and influences that have changed the workplace over the last 200 years. In exploring the history of trade unions, the viewer encounters a series of important developments that have shaped American society as a whole: wars, the industrial revolution, immigration, unemployment, Marxism and class conflict, women in the workplace, the Depression and the New Deal, crime and corruption, civil rights, and the emergence of high technology. A Cambridge Educational Production. One 40-minute video.

BATTLE OF THE ALAMO

"The doomed garrison has stood its ground... Now, alone, they face the inevitable hour and rush headlong into the crucible of history." This program—narrated by Hal Holbrook and filmed in part at the Alamo itself—travels back in time to the pivotal winter of 1836, when William Travis, Davy Crockett, Jim Bowie, and fewer than 200 Texians, as they called themselves, were engaged by the forces of General Antonio López de Santa Anna. The 13-day siege and the climactic battle, which lasted less than an hour, are thoroughly examined. Reenactments based on original journal entries bring the epic confrontation to life. 1968:

THE YEAR THAT SHAPED A GENERATION

War. Assassinations. Riots. This dramatic program examines the turbulent political and social landscapes of 1968 by combining dramatic archival footage and interviews with many key participants, including Walter Cronkite, Reverend Jesse Jackson, Senator Tom Hayden, Barbara Ehrenreich, Carlos Fuentes, and Pat Buchanan. Individual sections spotlight topics such as Vietnam, Robert Kennedy, Martin Luther King Jr. and the civil rights movement, student revolts, the counter-culture, the Democratic National Convention, the Prague Spring, the Mexico City student massacre, and the '68 presidential campaign and election. A powerful educational resource about one of the pivotal years of the 20th century. (57 minutes, color)

"REMEMBER THE MAINE":

The Roots of the Spanish-American War

"The U.S.S. Maine Blown Up in Havana Harbor—268 Men Lost" shouted the headlines of the day. Using archival footage, newspaper excerpts, and historical documents, this program traces the roots of the Spanish-American War to Spain's quest to preserve its flagging empire, American imperialism, and the genuine desire on the part of Cubans to shake off the yoke of Spanish domination. It closely examines the role of Cuba's poet/patriot José Martí, exposes American expansionist policies that contributed to our decision to enter the war, and reveals Spanish attempts to thwart open conflict. (50 minutes, color)
BVL8334 VHS $89.95

THE SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR:

A Conflict in Progress

This program examines the conduct of the war, from Theodore Roosevelt's Rough Riders, to the defeatist attitude of Spanish commander Admiral Cerveras, to Cuban General Gomez and his decision to side with the Americans. Actual footage taken at the battles of Las Guasimas, El Caney, and San Juan Hill supports excellent historical commentary, including photos, sketches, and firsthand accounts of the war by publishing mogul William Randolph Hearst. The precise sequence of political and military events leading to the Spanish defeat is carefully traced up to the Treaty of Paris, where Spain relinquishes all rights to Cuba, the Philippines, Guam, and Puerto Rico. ## PLAYING THE GAME:

20th-Century American Foreign Policy

Filmed in ten countries, this illuminating three-part retrospective takes an insightful look at watersheds in American foreign policy during World War II, the Vietnam War, and the years in between. Outstanding archival footage of key figures and events and commentary by renowned experts and eyewitnesses bring to life an era in world history that saw the U.S. move from isolationist idealism to expedient intervention in its efforts to bring an end to colonialism and defeat the forces of fascism and totalitarianism. 3-part series, 57 minutes each.

THE ATLANTIC CHARTER: The End of Colonialism

This program examines the Atlantic Charter, a joint declaration by Franklin Roosevelt and a reluctant Winston Churchill that gave hope to nationalists living in embattled Europe and in colonial possessions around the world. In addition, controversial research asserting that the Charter accelerated Hitler's plans for the Final Solution and influenced Japan's decision to attack Pearl Harbor is discussed. Commentary by Elliot Roosevelt; Patrick Kinna, Churchill's private secretary; Douglas Brinkley, of The Eisenhower Center for American Studies; and historians Arthur Schlesinger Jr., Richard Rathbone, Chandrika Kaul, Theodore Wilson, and Tobias Jersak is featured. ## THE WIND OF CHANGE:

The End of Colonialism in Africa

This program seeks to understand nationalism in black Africa through the experiences of the Gold Coast, French Guinea, and the Belgian Congo, the first colonies of Britain, France, and Belgium to win independence after World War II. The devastating effects of Cold War sparring by the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. in these regions are assessed, with a special focus on the tragedy in the former Belgian Congo. Commentary by François Lumumba; François Nkrumah; UN dignitary Sir Brian Urquhart; former ministers from the Kwame Nkrumah and Ahmed Sekou Touré governments; historians Mahmood Mamdani and Jean Fremigacci; and authors William Blum and Keith Kyle is featured. (57 minutes, color)

CAMBODIA'S KILLING FIELDS

This program scrutinizes U.S. violence against technically neutral Cambodia during the Vietnam War, attacks carried out in an effort to deny a haven for communist forces. The decade of upheaval that followed what has been called the low point in American diplomacy is also addressed, as an allegedly U.S.-backed coup drove Norodom Sihanouk into the arms of China and opened the door to the ruthless Khmer Rouge. Commentary by Emory "Coby" Swank and Noel Deschamps, former U.S. and Australian ambassadors to Cambodia; David Whipple, CIA station head in Cambodia; Lao Mong Hay, of the Khmer Institute of Democracy; and historian Stephen Heder is featured. ## BECOMING AMERICAN: THE CHINESE EXPERIENCE

What does it mean to become American? What is lost and what is gained in the process? In interviews with historians, descendants, and recent immigrants, this powerful three-part Bill Moyers series explores these questions through the dramatic experience of the Chinese in America. A viewer's guide, an educator's guide, and other resources are located online at www.pbs.org/becomingamerican. This series is available exclusively through Films for the Humanities & Sciences. 3-part series, 89 minutes each. BVL31325 VHS $299.95 DVD $479.95

GOLD MOUNTAIN DREAMS

In the 1840s, civil war and famine in southern China drove thousands of young men to seek their fortune in the California Gold Rush. This program traces the Chinese experience in America, from their welcome in San Francisco as "celestial men of commerce," through the Gold Rush and building of the Transcontinental Railroad, to the 1882 Chinese Exclusion Act banning their entry into this country. The program rediscovers the all-but-forgotten role of the Chinese and tells their stories through the lives of individuals using photos, artifacts, and interviews with descendants and historians. A viewer's guide, educator's guide, and other resources are located online at www.pbs.org/becomingamerican and www.becomingamerican.org. ## BETWEEN TWO WORLDS

In the early 1880s, abetted by the Chinese Exclusion Act, a wave of anti-Chinese sentiment swept across America. This program examines the exclusion years through the stories of Chinese Americans and their families who were kept apart by both ancient custom and U.S. law. These immigrants were trapped between countries, at home neither in the U.S. nor in China. The law of the land, which separated these families, also provided relief as Chinese Americans turned to the courts for justice. A viewer's guide, educator's guide, and other resources are located online at www.pbs.org/becomingamerican. ## NO TURNING BACK

The new immigration laws of 1965 were a turning point for the Chinese in America and allowed a new wave of immigrants to enter the country. Chinese American life has flourished in the years since. Narrated by Bill Moyers, this program presents intimate portraits of the new Chinese Americans who face a struggle common to so many immigrants: to reconcile some losses of their old culture in order to embrace their adopted American one. A viewer's guide, educator's guide, and other resources are located online at www.pbs.org/becomingamerican. ## BECOMING AMERICAN WITH BILL MOYERS

What does it mean to become American? What is lost and what is gained in the process? In interviews with historians, descendants, and recent immigrants, this powerful Bill Moyers series explores these questions through the dramatic experience of the Chinese in America. The larger themes of the 3-part documentary are made movingly personal in an additional series of candid conversations with five prominent Chinese-Americans: author Gish Jen, Nobel prize-winning physicist Samuel Ting, AIDS researcher Dr. David Ho, business executive Shirley Young, and artist and architect Maya Lin. A viewer's guide, an educator's guide, and other resources are located online at www.pbs.org/becomingamerican. 8-part series, 15-90 minutes each. ## AKHENATEN AND NEFERTITI: RULERS OF EGYPT

Generations after him dubbed Akhenaten "the criminal of Amarna" for replacing the Egyptian pantheon with a single god, Aten. This series explores the reign of this revolutionary pharaoh and his evangelist queen, Nefertiti. Interviews with noted archaeologists and experts provide historical context, while dramatic reenactments and computer animations re-create life four-and-a-half thousand years ago. 3-part series, 27 minutes each.

THE SUN WAS THE ONLY WITNESS

When Akhenaten became pharaoh, Egypt had been a polytheistic culture for over 2,000 years. Filmed on location, this program tells the story of how a heretical ruler kindled a religious revolution, building an unprecedented city at Amarna and restricting worship to a single deity, the sun god Aten. Lavish reenactments and expert commentary bring to life the drama of Akhenaten's bold plans which made him the first founder of a religion known to history. Scholars point out that while most traces of his rule were erased after his death, the idea of monotheism was never banished. (27 minutes, color)

THE RIDDLE OF AMARNA

Akhenaten's insistence on a new monotheistic faith plunged Egypt into a crisis. But did the pharaoh knowingly lead his country into disaster or was he beguiled by a ruthless woman, his queen Nefertiti? In this program, archaeologists and scholars examine the still-unresolved mysteries of their reign. Location footage is combined with computer animations based on excavations of Akhenaten's colossal city dedicated to the sun god. Geneticists and forensic experts try to unravel the incestuous lineage of this royal family and determine whether its heir, Tutankhamon, was murdered. (27 minutes, color)

THE MUMMIES OF THE HERETICS

After he died, Akhenaten was declared a heretic and an attempt was made to wipe out all traces of his reign. Did the Egyptian high priests also destroy the mummies of the pharaoh and Nefertiti? This fascinating program traces the discovery by Richard Lepsius in the 19th century of Akhenaten's city at Amarna, Akhet Aten, and the search for the mummies of the heretic king and queen. Could Tutankhamon, the pharaoh's famed son, have ordered his parents' remains to be moved to a safe location? (27 minutes, color)

MESSAGES FROM THE PAST: REASSESSING ANCIENT CIVILIZATIONS

The stories of ancient Egypt, Mesopotamia, the Indus Valley, and ancient China are, in a sense, the stories of their life-giving rivers. In this fascinating four-part series, the disciplines of archaeology, anthropology, sociology, engineering, agriculture, climatology, and metallurgy contribute to a thought-provoking examination of these civilizations, their contributions to world culture, and the central role of their vital waterways. 4-part series, 59 minutes each.

EGYPT: JOURNEY TO THE GLOBAL CIVILIZATION

Were Egypt's pyramids really built by slaves to be the tombs of the pharaohs? Most scholars believed so—until the excavation of a workers' village and the tomb of High Priest Kai led to some startling conclusions. In this program, Zahi Hawass, of Egypt's Supreme Council of Antiquities, and renowned anthropologist Azza Saary el-Din provide support for the "public works" theory of the late Egyptologist Kurt Mendelsohn, while analysis of the River Nile's flood cycle, inquiries into the practices of medicine and mummification, and outstanding 3-D computer animation offer a broad perspective on ancient Egyptian society. ### MESOPOTAMIA: I HAVE CONQUERED THE RIVER

Literally "the land between the rivers," Mesopotamia was host to some of the world's earliest and most powerful civilizations. Shot on location, this program seeks to understand how the Sumerian city-states, cradled by the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers, built a vibrant agricultural economy—and why, after centuries, the wheat crop suddenly failed. Commentary by Asli Ozdogan, of Istanbul University, and Kazuya Maekawa, of Kyoto University; discussion of cuneiform, the Code of Hammurabi, and the Epic of Gilgamesh; and a remarkable 3-D computer re-creation of a peopled street scene offer a glimpse of life in Lower Mesopotamia. ### ANCIENT GREECE

Whether looking at Western language, history, or institutions, no other civilization has so greatly influenced our contemporary world. This program re-creates the Greek world, from the morning market to the evening symposiums, from burial rituals to the Olympics. Beginning with Homer's account of the Trojan War, this program explores Greek civilization using 3-D re-creations of the Parthenon and Agora, maps, and commentary by scholars to provide insight into the daily lives of Greek citizens. ### INDUS: THE UNVOICED CIVILIZATION

Shrouded in mystery, the details of the Indus Valley civilization are slowly being extracted from the archaeological record. In this program, Richard Meadow, of Harvard University; R. S. Bisht, of the Archaeological Survey of India; linguist Asko H. S. Parpola; and other experts investigate the language, customs, and beliefs of the inhabitants of Mohenjo-daro, Harappa, Dholavira, and Kalibangan. Satellite photos, maps, relics, and an extraordinary 3-D computer re-creation of Dholavira and its water management system shed light on topics including the enigmatic Sarasvati River and Indus Valley links to Bahrain and faraway Mesopotamia. ### CHINA: HERITAGE OF THE WILD DRAGON

The fine loess soil of the Yellow River basin quickly established that region as the home of China's earliest recorded dynasty. This program focuses primarily on Bronze Age China and the contributions of the Yin (or Shang) dynasty, with a tangential emphasis on the reign of the Qins. Commentary by Tang Jigen, of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, and other experts; archival film of the excavation of Yinxi; armor and artifacts from the tomb of Qin Shihuangdi; footage of loess being used to replicate intricate Yin-era bronzes; and incredible 3-D computer animation provide penetrating insights into the history of ancient China. ### ANCIENT INDIA

The antecedents of modern Indian culture can be traced back to the Harappan civilization, which flourished between 2300 and 1500 BC in what are now Pakistan and Afghanistan. This era saw the birth of the Hindu religion. The Aryan tribes from the Russian steppes invaded the subcontinent in 1000 BC, bringing their language and culture. The resulting synthesis between the Aryan and Indian civilizations brought forth a unique society that included a caste system, which soon became entrenched. This program examines the religious tension between Hinduism, Buddhism, and Islam, and the historical events that shaped the great Indian civilizations, from the Mauryan Empire through the Mogul Empire. Maps and scholars provide insight into a culture that remains vibrant and diverse today. (48 minutes, color)

THE WANDERING TRIBES OF EUROPE

This spectacular four-part series takes an in-depth look at the history of Europe's wandering tribes: their migrations in search of land, their ensuing clashes with the Romans and the Huns, and their adoption, over time, of Christianity. Dramatic reenactments, computer-generated re-creations of period architecture, maps, images of anthropological and historical artifacts, and insights from leading scholars create a compelling picture of life and death in ancient and early medieval Europe. 4-part series listed below, 52 minutes each.

FROM THE MISTS OF THE NORTH, THE GERMANIC TRIBES

In the 2nd century BCE, the Cimbri and Teuton tribes began to move southward from their Scandinavian homeland, Jutland. Soundly defeating the Roman army at Noricum in 113 BCE, they set in motion an era of migration that spelled the beginning of the end of Roman military and political supremacy. This program examines the reasons why these Germanic peoples left their homeland, explores their traditions and beliefs, and illustrates the clashes of arms and of culture that marked the first contacts between Roman and Barbarus. ### FUROR TEUTONICUS, PAX ROMANA

At the time the Roman Empire supplanted the failed Republic, the Rhine River marked Rome's northern frontier in western Europe—until Emperor Augustus tried to push the boundary east to the Elbe. Focusing on the events during the 1st through 4th centuries, this program traces the movements of the Goths and the tribes of Germania, including the epic battle in the year 9 when Arminius, leader of the Germanic resistance to Roman colonization, destroyed three Roman legions under Publius Varus—and the emperor's plans for conquest. ### STORM OVER EUROPE: THE HUNS ARE COMING

When the Huns charged into the lands of the Goths and then, in the 5th century, into Europe, they started a new wave of terror and tribal relocation. This program tracks the displacement of the Visigoths to Spain and the Vandals to North Africa. Both succeeded in defeating proud and once-mighty Rome in its own capital—but who would stop the hordes of Attila as they raced onwards into the Frankish Kingdom? (52 minutes, color)

By the 6th century, the migrating peoples of Europe had begun to settle down, establishing the boundaries of their domains—but not of their ambitions. Who would become the heirs of the Roman Empire and the allies—and enemies—of the Church? This program reconstructs the development of key non-Roman kingdoms including those of the Ostrogoths in Italy, the Merovingians in Gaul, and the Anglo-Saxons in Britain. (52 minutes, color)

FORTRESS EUROPE: THE IMMIGRATION SITUATION

Over the past decade, thousands of refugees and asylum-seekers from all over the world have paid with their lives in their attempts to find safety in "Fortress Europe." Drawing on representative case studies, gripping archival footage, and interviews with policymakers, anti-policy activists, and others, this chilling three-part series scrutinizes Europe's stringent immigration regulations while exposing the severe measures used to enforce them. 3-part series, 60 minutes each.

ESCAPE TO THE E.U.? HUMAN RIGHTS AND IMMIGRATION POLICY IN CONFLICT

Five decades after the inception of the Geneva Refugee Convention, the European immigration system is on the verge of collapse as a flood of people fleeing persecution and violence threatens to engulf the E.U. This program looks at the processing of refugees and asylum-seekers in Sweden and Britain—typified by a lengthy detention punctuated by interrogation and a summary legal hearing—as the UN and the E.U. seek to address human rights issues. The newsmaking stories of a Bangladeshi detainee's suicide, a Kosovar Albanian detainee's deportation to certain death, and the struggle of Cameroonian political activist George Ekontang are spotlighted. The exploitation of xenophobia as a political tool is also considered. Some content may be objectionable. (60 minutes, color)

ONE-WAY TICKET TO GHANA: FORCED DEPORTATION FROM THE E.U.

Peter Ekwiri, a Ugandan, is only one of many people whose applications for asylum in the E.U. have been denied. And like many other blacks from Africa considered "undesirable" by European governments such as Sweden and Germany, he was forcibly deported—but not to his home country. This program uses Ekwiri's case as a springboard to reveal a corrupt system in which E.U. police and immigration authorities clandestinely pay Ghana to act as a transfer point—in reality a dumping ground—for black deportees. And life in Ghana usually means years of imprisonment and an obscure death. The program also investigates other similar cases while exploring the statistical implications of European racial bias against black Africans. (59 minutes, color)

KOSOVO: OF BLOOD AND HISTORY

To fully understand the recent bloodshed in Kosovo, one must go back 600 years and trace the causes of the undying hatreds that permeate Serbia and the surrounding region. Using eyewitness accounts, maps, and footage both of historic events and of Serbian life, this program examines the ethnic nationalism and religious extremism that have resulted in the long-standing hatred between Serbs and Kosovar Albanians—a hatred that continued to destabilize the Balkans during the Milosevic regime. ### DYING TO GET IN: ILLEGAL IMMIGRATION TO THE E.U.

In the E.U., internal borders have been made transparent to promote the free flow of commerce. Its external borders, however, are another matter. This program surveys the high-tech methods being used to secure the E.U.'s borders against refugees and asylum-seekers alike while speaking with human smugglers, who both assist and exploit their clients; illegal immigrants, who see Europe as their only safe haven; and European bureaucrats, who in the absence of an overarching E.U. policy feel compelled to keep as many immigrants out of "Fortress Europe" as possible, to please their increasingly anti-immigrant electorates. ### BREAKING THE TRADE: THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY IN THE BRITISH EMPIRE

In the early 1800s, an extraordinary event occurred in British politics: a small pressure group successfully lobbied against the entrenched, well-moneyed interests of slavery. This program uses dramatic reenactments, readings of Parliamentary minutes, and expert commentary to tell the story of the three men largely responsible for slavery's abolition: William Wilberforce, Granville Sharp, and Thomas Clarkson. Michael Dottridge, the director of Anti-Slavery International, explains that the barbarous practice has not been eradicated everywhere: an estimated 27 million people are still enslaved worldwide today. ### FASCISM: THE LEGACY OF HATE

As the ultra-right edges closer to real power in Europe, a dismayed EU fears a dark renaissance in politics. This disturbing program, supported by footage including a skinhead hate party and anti-immigrant violence, traces the virulent resurgence of xenophobia in Europe. Joerg Haider, of Austria's Freedom Party; Albert Szabo, founder of Hungary's World Nation Party; and politicians from the German, Italian, and French extreme right defend their platforms while author Michael Ignatieff, historian Anton Pelinka, Jewish leaders, and Kosovar and Kurdish refugees counter with insights into the psychology of hate and voice fears that Europe's bloody history will soon repeat itself. ## ANCIENT EGYPT

For almost 3,000 years, the pharaohs ruled a civilization that is arguably the grandest of the ancient world. This program sheds new light on this enigmatic empire, offering information on the god-kings, the construction of the pyramids, religions and cults, mummification and burial rites, the Rosetta Stone, and the vast treasures of Tutankhamen. Interviews with noted Egyptologists, a professor from Cairo University, the chief inspector at the archaeological digs at Gaza, and the son of the guide who led Howard Carter to the tomb of Tutankhamen in 1922 add valuable insights. Computer graphics re-create pyramids, temples, and the sphinx in their original states. (47 minutes, color)

THE PHOENICIANS

Daring sea navigators, highly skilled artisans, and scholars of the first order, the Phoenicians left an indelible mark on Western history. This program traces the history of the Phoenician civilization while discussing the Phoenicians' many achievements, which include the circumnavigation of Africa, the construction of Solomon's temple, and the development of the proto-Latin alphabet. But did they really engage in human sacrifice? And did their voyages actually bring them to the shores of America? Experts search for answers to these and other questions. (53 minutes, color)

OLIVER CROMWELL

Parliamentarian, Puritan soldier, treasonous regicide, Lord Protector of England: Oliver Cromwell was all of these things, and this program scrutinizes his eventful life against the turbulent backdrop of 17th-century English political unrest. After the victory of his unstoppable Ironsides at Marston Moor and the decisive defeat of Royalist forces at Naseby by his New Model Army, Cromwell's forces deposed Charles I, defeated the Irish and Scots, and, in 1653, established a short-lived military protectorate. This program, featuring commentary by Dr. Les Prince of Birmingham University, England, examines the tumultuous times of Oliver Cromwell and history's ultimate verdict. ## GREAT BATTLES OF HISTORY

This dazzling seven-part series listed below spotlights crucial battles within the context of epic struggles for national, political, and religious domination. With examples drawn from both the Old World and the New World, this select group of programs provides a new take on battles that have shaped history, from 1066 to 1815. 7-part series, 30 minutes each. BVL9179 VHS $569.95 DVD-R $569.95 Save $60.00 by buying the series!

THE WARS OF THE ROSES

Using large-scale reenactments of 15th-century warfare, detailed maps, graphics, and expert commentary by Dr. David Chandler, military historian and former Head of War Studies at Sandhurst, this informative program explores the roots and the results of the brutal and exhausting civil war between the houses of York and Lancaster. From St. Albans to Bosworth Field, the program provides a penetrating examination of a complicated yet compelling period of English history. (30 minutes, color)

THE BATTLE OF QUEBEC

As the North American colonies of France and Great Britain continued to spread, friction and outright violence between New France and New England became inevitable. Placing the French and Indian War in its larger political context, this program traces the war's progress to the Battle of Quebec. In a bold stroke, the British deployed on the Plains of Abraham under cover of darkness—and a mere fifteen minutes of combat spelled the beginning of the end of 150 years of French colonial rule. (31 minutes, color)

THE BATTLE OF HASTINGS

October 14, 1066, was a day that saw the history of England and Europe change forever. This program describes the Battle of Hastings in its entirety: the position of Harold II's Anglo-Saxon army near a village that today is simply called "Battle," William of Normandy's surprise attack from Telham Hill, the cavalry charges and hand-to-hand fighting that steadily weakened Harold's troops, and the death of King Harold himself—shot through the eye with an arrow.

In addition, Dr. David Chandler, military historian and former Head of War Studies at Sandhurst, discusses the strategy and tactics used by both sides. (30 minutes, color)

THE ENGLISH CIVIL WAR

This program is a study of the bitter 17th-century struggle between Parliamentarian and Royalist forces, which led to the execution of King Charles I and a brief period of republican government. Using 3-D maps and graphics, reenactments of period warfare, and analysis by Dr. David Chandler, military historian and former Head of War Studies at Sandhurst, the social, political, economic, and religious dimensions of this tragic chapter of history are explored. (30 minutes, color)

THE SPANISH CONQUEST OF MEXICO

Although Hernán Cortés hardly considered himself the reincarnation of Quetzalcoatl, the Aztecs did—and his conquest of Mesoamerica utterly destroyed their world, exactly as prophesied. In this program, Spanish historian and Oxford University professor Sir John Elliott and cultural historian Dr. Elizabeth Baquedano survey political, cultural, and religious aspects of Aztec civilization; analyze Cortés' military campaign in detail; and discuss Spanish influences on Mexican culture. Artwork, artifacts, 3-D models, and excerpts from the writings of Bernal Diaz add depth to this penetrating study of Spanish opportunism in the New World. (30 minutes, color)

THE SPANISH ARMADA

Outwitted and outmaneuvered by Lord Howard of Effingham and Sir Francis Drake and thwarted by the weather as well, the Duke of Medina Sidonia's once-mighty Armada returned to Spain in defeat, signaling the end of Spanish naval supremacy. This program analyzes the political and military aspects of Philip II's attempted invasion of England through expert commentary, battle maps, and reenactments involving the personalities and the ships that made this conflict a watershed in European history. (30 minutes, color)

THE NAPOLEONIC WARS

At a time when revolutionary France was assailed from all sides, there emerged a young military officer whose genius and ambition assured him of great fame—and notoriety. In this program, Dr. David Chandler—world-renowned authority on the Emperor Napoleon and author of The Campaigns of Napoleon—provides full commentary on the strategies and tactics of the Napoleonic Wars. Large-scale reenactments bring to life the military campaigns that so strongly influenced a century of European history. Maps, hundreds of images and paintings, and analyses of the weapons used by the opposing armies also contribute to this thorough examination of the Napoleonic era. (31 minutes, color)

ASIA

SAMURAI JAPAN

From their ascension to power in the 13th century to the unconditional surrender of Japan at the end of World War II, the Samurai, with their code of virtue and discipline, created a society that prized one's honor over one's own life. In this program, scholars discuss the unique influence that this created and the impact of the Samurai on Japan's institutions and history, including the role of women in political alliances. Also discussed is Japan's shift from feudalism to a bureaucratic and cosmopolitan society, symbolically ruled by the emperor and administered by shoguns. (48 minutes, color)

FORBIDDEN CITY: THE GREAT WITHIN

Narrated by Rod Steiger, this timeless program explores the history of imperial China through its symbolic heart: Beijing, the "Forbidden City." The program gives a visually stunning tour of the hub of the world's oldest bureaucracy and center for all Chinese government, a city containing schools, temples, theaters, exquisite gardens, and 240 acres of palaces. Period paintings, etchings, archival material, and readings from 1,000 years of Imperial diaries complement this unprecedented access to a capital long closed to the outside world. A Discovery Channel Production. (51 minutes, color)

MIDDLE EAST & ISLAM

THE ARABS MAKE THEIR ENTRANCE: ISLAM AND EMPIRE

As the shadow of the Dark Ages fell across Europe, the scene for the advancement of Western civilization shifted to the Near East. This program charts the rise of the Arab empire, from its roots in the long-standing rivalry between the Byzantines and the Sassanids. Nodes along that timeline include the dual role of Mecca as a place of worship and as a center for trade, the life of Muhammad and the birth of Islam, the rapid expansion of Arabia at the expense of Byzantium and the Sassanid kingdom, and the internecine struggle between Arab factions that led to the founding of the Umayyad dynasty. Portions are in French with English subtitles. (26 minutes, color)

"THE PLAY'S THE THING":

CHINA'S CULTURAL REVOLUTION

The Cultural Revolution, which started in 1966, had less to do with culture than with a violent attempt to control the minds of the Chinese people. Yet it was a play, which slyly criticized Chairman Mao, that raised the curtain on this horrendous period in China's history, acting as a catalyst for the brutal reforms. Beginning with an excerpt from The Dismissal of Hai Rui, this program presents the details of the movement that led to the deaths of half a million people before finally consuming itself. Jack Gray, author of Rebellions and Revolutions, and Zhang Yongning, son of a Party official, offer their insights into the Communist politics of the day. (25 minutes, color)

AKBAR THE GREAT, MOGUL EMPEROR OF INDIA

A descendant of Genghis Khan and Tamerlane, Akbar the Great succeeded in forging an empire in India that brought about a splendid period of political stability and religious tolerance. This program blends dramatizations of significant moments in Mogul history with location footage of intricate architectural landmarks to create a detailed account of Akbar's reign. Religious and secular customs from both then and now as well as events in Europe concurrent with the Mogul empire are also documented, in order to demonstrate the historical interplay between East and West and the survival of remnants of Mogul culture in India today. (54 minutes, color)

PALESTINE: 1890-1990

This program provides a historical perspective on one of the world's most deeply rooted conflicts, covering the major events that have shaped the region, from the origins of Zionism in Europe in the 1890s to the historic peace agreement between Israel and the PLO in 1993. The program depicts Palestine's position in the Ottoman Empire, the Balfour Declaration, the League of Nations Mandate under British authority, the United Nations partition plan, the creation of the state of Israel in 1948, and the subsequent invasions, annexations, and occupations which have gripped the world's attention since. Featured in the program are David Ben-Gurion, Jamal Bey Hussein, Ahmed Shukeiry, Abba Eban, Yasir Arafat, George Habbash, and Yitzhak Shamir. A United Nations production. ### WHY GEOGRAPHY?

If you ever need to introduce geography, this will help you do it.

School Library Journal.

Put the viewer in the passenger seat for a twelve day field trip throughout the American Southwest. Zig-zagging through five states, the host visits people and places in search of the true meaning of geography.

Dispels the myth that geography is limited to the study of maps, mountain ranges, and capitals. It reveals geography as a broad and diverse field and traces its connections to science, history, politics, economics, religion, urban development, immigration and culture. ### AMERICA'S RAINFOREST

Nestled in the valleys of the old-growth forests along Washington's Olympic Peninsula lies the only remaining temperate rainforest in North America. The rainforest of the Pacific Northwest is one of only three remaining temperate rainforests in the world. Viewers gain an appreciation for the delicate nature of the very ecosystem necessary to sustain human existence. Through colorful and vivid cinematography the beauty, complexity, and wonder of these rapidly disappearing biospheres, and their consequential global effect, the viewer is treated to a close-up and commiserative view of what has truly become one of America's most irreplaceable treasure - its singular rainforest.

There's nothing like college. Every campus is unique. We visited over 70 campuses across the country and designed a unique game for each.

Along the way on every campus we talked to students and alumni to find out what makes their school special. The results: over 70 great games!

We know all about Harry's Chocolate Shop in West Lafayette, Indiana - and the Dixie Chicken in College Station, Texas.

We walked across the Diag in Ann Arbor, Michigan - and stood "tween the hedges" in Athens, Georgia.

TRIVIA BOOKS

Gary Grim

These books of trivia quizzes are designed to exercise the thought process and promote the retrieval of information stored in long term memory. We all know things that we have not recalled in a long time. When we are prompted to remember, it creates a good feeling to realize, "Oh! I know that!" There are over 1000 large-print trivia questions in each book. Each quiz has a theme and interesting artwork that helps make associations and facilitates recall. The theme topics are useful to stimulate discussion or to lead into another activity. Suggested follow-up activities are offered with each quiz. Recalling, remembering, and reminiscing will continue. Choose one or both for hours of trivia fun.
